NEW BUSINESS: 1. Elissa Crompton – 425 4th Avenue – Sewer issues

Report from Publicworks – Brad Kingdon – November 6th

Saturday November 2nd R.M was contacted about a plugged sewer. Castle was called to the site. They attempted to clean the line with no success. They put a camera trace down the line and determined that it was plugged with gravel and it was at a different elevation than the water line so it was not their responsibility.
Monday November 4th. I contacted Viking excavation about digging the site up. He agreed to do it with assistance from Rick Cooper excavation.
Tuesday November 5th. The site was excavated and it was determined that in directional drilling the water line in the sewer was hit. Repairs were made and the hole filled. Shane from Castle visited and acknowledged they were responsible.
Wednesday November 6th. Castle is in contact with the homeowner and are making plans for cleaning the basement.

2. Christina Jones – 520 6th Avenue (Don Waldon’s old house) – sewer issues
